

Actual vs Planned cost/Countries Percentage Dashboard

Planned vs actual duration per country - This is a bar chart showing comparison of the duration per country, where it allows regiona, general, country management to select from various countries and measures. Therefore, the user will have the ability to review and compare the different measures per country or for a certain or all countries and region.

Planned vs actual - This is a barchart showing cost per country, where it allows regiona, general, country management to select from various countries and measures. Therefore, the user will have the ability to review and compare the different measures per country or for a certain or all countries and region.

